

TRANSACTIONAL ANALYSIS ONLINE EXAM PREPARATION WORKSHOP

with

Jan Grant, TSTA (Counselling and Education)

Anne Tucker, TSTA (Organisational)

and Keith Tudor, TSTA (Psychotherapy)

Day 1	7 November	(Jan & Keith)
Day 2	5 December	(Jan & Anne)
Day 3	30 January	(Keith & Anne)
Day 4	27 February	(Jan & Keith)
Day 5	27 March	(Keith & Anne)
Day 6	24 April	(Jan & Anne)

These monthly workshops will cater for people training in any of the four fields of application of transactional analysis (TA), i.e. counselling, education, organisations, and psychotherapy, and will provide supervision for all levels of exam preparation. This includes:

- Preparing for the CTA oral exam
 - Preparing for the TEW
 - Preparing for the TSTA exams

(Keith will separately support those who would like assistance preparing for their written CTA exam.)

The precise programme of the workshop will be co-created by the facilitators and the participants in order to cater for individual supervision needs. Participants are also encouraged to make time between the sessions for self-reflection and to integrate learning. The workshop provides participants with 24 hours of training/supervision.

VENUE: Online – across seven times zones – from India to Aotearoa New Zealand

COST: $1,400 (NZ$)

TO REGISTER: <http://www.tatraining.co.nz/courses/ta-exam-preparation-workshops>

FACILITATORS

Jan Grant, B.Ed., M. Ed. (Adult Ed.), CTA, TSTA (E & C), ITAA, ATAA, has a long history in tertiary education and has been in private practice in Sydney for over 30 years, where she sees individuals, couples and supervisees. Jan has been involved in TA for 37 years and has supervised 16 successful CTA candidates (E & C), 3 TEW and 1 TSTA.

Anne Tucker is a CTA and TSTA (O) and has been involved in TA for 24 years. She developed an Australasian business providing Employee Assistance Programmes, and other resources to support employers and employees. She is currently providing TA training, supervision and coaching to New Zealanders and international clients. She is the current Australasian representative on the ITAA Board of Trustees.

Keith is a CTA (P) and a TSTA (P), and Professor of Psychotherapy at Auckland University of Technology. He has been involved in TA for 35 years as a clinician, supervisor, trainer, and writer and, this year was, with Graeme Summers, the co-recipient of the Eric Berne Memorial Award. He is the author of over 80 publications on TA, including four books, and enjoys encouraging people to write. He has supervised people to successful completion of the CTA written exams (13), the CTA oral exams (9), the TEW (8), and the TSTA oral exams (3 candidates, 7 exams).